Report Number Four of the Election Committee

USGenWeb Election Committee
Report # 4
August 14, 2001

The Following Report is submitted to the Advisory Board of the USGenWeb Project:

The 2001 USGenWeb Project Elections opened on July 1, 2001 and closed at midnight CDT on July 31, 2001. During the election two candidates withdrew: George Waller from the Northeast/North Central State Coordinator Representative race and Joy Fisher from the Northwest/Plains State Coordinator Representative race.

The Election Results for each race were sent to the candidates of that race the evening of August 1, 2001. An hour later the Election Results were sent to the Advisory Board, the ALL, CC-L, State-CC and EC Announcement List. The EC Web Page was updated about the same time.

The voting results of the 2001 USGenWeb Project Regular Election are as follows:

Other business that is underway:

The EC has posted a request for volunteers to replace the following members who have resigned:
Kathy Heidel resigned when she became a candidate and is now a member of the AB
Debbie Anderson resigned due to the pressures of her promotion at her job
Bill Prokasy resigned due to his displeasure with the politics of the Project.

The EC has posted a Survey Form on the web site and is collecting responses. Within the next couple of weeks the results of the Survey will be posted to the EC Web Site.

If you should have any questions please feel free to ask.

Respectfully,
Linda Haas Davenport
